SUPPORTING ALL

Research demonstrates that high quality CPD for teachers has a significant positive effect on pupil outcomes and is the most cost-effective way to boost pupil attainment

THE BENFLEET TEAM SUPPORTING ALL

Oracy in KS3

Encourage 11-14 year olds to develop good oracy and communication skills to support learning and relationship building

This series of three training sessions, for different age groups, is aimed at all teaching and support staff working with students to encourage effective communication. This session is aimed at practitioners working with students aged 11-14 years (including SEND and disadvantaged students) to enhance the development of good oracy skills.

SUITABLE FOR KS3 SECONDARY PHASE

Oracy in KS3

Oracy can be defined as the range of speaking and listening skills, behaviours and language necessary for effective communication and collaboration. Oracy skills encompass physical, social and emotional, linguistic and cognitive aspects of learning.

Why Oracy matters

"The things we say and how we say them can inform, influence, inspire and motivate others and express our empathy, understanding and creativity. It is our ability to communicate that enables us to build positive relationships, collaborate for common purpose, deliberate and share our ideas as citizens."

Becky Earnshaw, Director, Voice 21 & Peter Hyman, Executive Headteacher, School 21 in Will Millard and Loic Menzies 'The State of Speaking in Our Schools'.

This session, aimed at KS3 students, will look at:

- Ways we can encourage students to develop and enhance good oracy skills to aid communication
- How we can introduce oracy into classrooms
- The development of oracy skills
- How to encourage parents to become involved
