

Early Career Teacher Induction support and administration 2021/22

We will provide schools with an Appropriate Body to oversee the Induction of ECTs. TES Institute with the Havering Education Services is an accredited Appropriate Body and is offering the following service to enable all schools/Academies to meet the requirements.

Support outline:

This programme is aimed at Induction Tutors and ECTs and will include:

- Registration and returns to the TRA
- Access to a support website, 'ECT Manager'
- Large number of online resources to aid induction and ensure all statutory requirements are met.
- Telephone and email helpline
- Monitoring of all end of term progress reports for ECTs
- Monitoring of all end of year assessment reports for ECTs
- ECT panel re failing ECTs and extensions to the Induction period
- Regular updates re Induction
- Updates to the latest education thinking and research
- Links to New Teacher news, webinars and Blogs

If your ECT is vulnerable the following is also available (at no further cost):

- A monitoring visit, Face to Face or virtual, to the ECT induction tutor to ensure they have carried out all statutory roles and have evidence to support their judgement that the ECT is unlikely to meet Induction standards
- Observation of a lesson(s) delivered by the ECT to quality assure the judgements made by the school
- Discussion with the ECT to listen to their views on the support they have had regarding their statutory entitlement
- Feedback to the ECT and co-ordinator with regard to the next steps to be taken to improve the chance of the ECT meeting the induction standards including making recommendations regarding any additional support that is felt to be needed
- Access to online CPD support

Please note:

Additional support can be purchased in half day units and could include for example a second monitoring visit, before the final assessment report is submitted, towards the end of the Induction period.
Cost:

£330 per ECT per two year full induction programme.

Reduced induction: one term- £140, two terms - £240, 3 terms- £300
